Horse riding and carriage rides in Tweng

SUBHEADING

Explore the Twenger Lantschfeld on horseback or by carriage

SHORT TEXT

Green meadows, towering mountains and the steady sound of hooves: a horse or carriage ride in Tweng offers a fresh perspective on the landscape, with plenty of time to take it all in.

TEXT

The protected landscape of the Twenger Lantschfeld provides a beautiful setting for time spent with horses. In the saddle, you experience nature up close. On a carriage ride, you can sit back and enjoy the alpine surroundings at a leisurely pace.

Your contact is the Klary family at Landhotel Postgut, who run a Noriker horse breeding and riding business. Whether you would like to try riding for the first time or already have experience, discuss suitable options and dates directly with them. Together, you can find the horse experience that suits you and your family.
