A Symphonic Tribute to the 80s

SHORT TEXT

Familiar melodies from the 80s, the full sound of an orchestra and Obertauern's mountains as a backdrop: on 3 April 2027, Philharmonie Salzburg joins Monika Ballwein and other special guests to bring the hits of a decade to the open-air stage.

TEXT

Some songs bring back memories from the very first notes. At Obertauern Symphonic, you can hear them in a new musical setting: Philharmonie Salzburg, conducted by Elisabeth Fuchs, combines the music of the 80s with symphonic arrangements.

Monika Ballwein adds her voice to the orchestra. This open-air afternoon concert is for anyone who wants to rediscover familiar melodies. After a day in the mountains, take time to listen, move to the music and enjoy the concert together.
