

HEADING

Cross-country skiing in Obertauern

SUBHEADING

High-altitude trails and mountain views

SHORT TEXT

Classic or skating, leisurely or energetic: three varied cross-country trails in and around Obertauern invite you to explore the snow-covered mountains at your own pace.

TEXT

Your skis glide through the snow. The air is clear and every stride helps you find your rhythm. Cross-country skiing in Obertauern combines exercise with the enjoyment of nature, whether you prefer a relaxed outing or a sporting challenge.

At Gnadental, you can choose from routes of varying difficulty. The sunny Hundsfeldloipe takes you through the winter landscape of the protected Hundsfeldmoor. The Weltcuploipe towards Felsertal is ideal for cross-country skiers with good stamina. Find the right trail for your winter day.

HARD FACTS

Gnadentalloipe

- High-altitude trail at approximately 1,350 metres above sea level
- Routes for beginners and more experienced skiers, including challenging sections
- For classic and skating techniques
- Length: approx. 20 km

Hundsfeldloipe

- Sunny location with beautiful mountain views
- Route through the Hundsfeldmoor nature reserve
- Access north of the sports centre
- Additional access point by the kite area
- Descent back towards the sports centre
- Length: approx. 6 km

Weltcuploipe

- Moderate trail for cross-country skiers with good stamina
- Route from the Zehnerkarbahn valley station to Felseralm and back
- Access at the Zehnerkar car park P2
- Length: approx. 6 km