

HEADING

Tobogganing in Obertauern

SUBHEADING

Tobogganing fun from morning to evening

SHORT TEXT

Head uphill together, then enjoy the ride down: the 1.5-kilometre toboggan run at Gnadental offers winter fun with family and friends. Floodlighting means the fun can continue into the evening.

TEXT

Get your toboggan ready, take a seat, and enjoy the next descent: at Gnadental, tobogganing is a winter activity that brings people of all ages together. The run winds through the snowy landscape, inviting you to enjoy more rides together.

A Skidoo toboggan taxi is available for the uphill journey. The toboggans are attached to the sides and carried with you. They can be hired directly at Gnadental, where the start and finish are also located. In the evening, the lights lend the run a special atmosphere, whether you fancy one last ride or several more.
