

Interesting facts about Obertauern Bobby the snow bunny / Bobbyland

In December 2019, the time had finally come: Obertauern's beloved mascot, Bobby the Snow Bunny, inaugurated the new "Bobby Land" with his friends and many guests as part of a big family party.

The little ones can look forward to "Bobby's Monster Park", where funny characters and exciting puzzles await them. A wave track and an obstacle course have been set up for the older kids. On "Bobby's Slalom", children can get the right feel for skiing playfully. If they need a break afterwards, they can relax and warm up in the new break room. Other attractions include a children's igloo and the ski ghost train in the fairy tale park at Schaidbergbahn, which can be visited on skis.

