

Things to know about Obertauern

Winter & snowshoeing

Winter hiking trail Südwieener Hütte

Starting from the front Gnadenalm, follow the winter hiking trail towards the rear Gnadenalm past the snow-covered winter landscape. From there, the ascent up to the Südwieener Hütte begins. Those who don't want to make the return journey on foot have the option of travelling down on a toboggan. Toboggans can be hired on site.

Length: approx. 11 km
Walking time: 3.40 hours
Difficulty: medium

Winter hiking trail Obertauern-Sonnhof

The pass summit is the starting point for this wonderful hike. The path leads you to the old sports centre of Obertauern. Past the Zentralbahn railway in the direction of Sonnlift 3. From here it is only a short walk to the Hotel Sonnhof.

Length: approx. 1.7 km
Walking time: 30.30 minutes
Difficulty: easy

Winter hiking trail Obertauern-Kringsalm, Dikt'n Alm, Seekarhaus

From the top of the pass in Obertauern, the route leads past the old sports centre, where sports aces such as Hermann Maier have kept fit, towards the Seekarhaus. The road meanders leisurely through the Hundsfeldmoor nature reserve towards Seekar. After a cosy stop at the Seekarhaus, the Kringsalm or the Dikt'n Alm, you return to the starting point.

Length: approx. 2.1 km
Walking time: 0.45 minutes
Difficulty: easy

Winter hiking trail Schubertmulde

Winter hiking in the unspoilt snowy landscape!

The Schubertmulde winter hiking trail leads from various starting points, either clockwise or anti-clockwise back to the starting point. (Flubachalm, Gottschallalm, Felseralm, Almrauschütte, Kehrkopfbahn) Breathe in the clear winter air, leave everyday life behind and enjoy the peace and quiet! You don't need any special equipment or much preparation. Just start hiking!

Length: approx. 5.3 km
Walking time: 1.30 hours
Difficulty: medium

Winter hiking trail Hundsfeld

The old sports centre is the starting point for this wonderful hike. This winter hiking trail leads along the cross-country ski trail towards the Seekarhaus and below the Plattenkartspitze with marvellous panoramic views.

Length: approx. 6 km

Walking time: 1.45 hours, 45 minutes

Difficulty: medium

World Cup winter hiking trail

The winter hiking trail starts at the P2 car park / Zehnerkar valley station. You can enjoy the landscape and tranquillity of the Weninger Au up to the Felseralm.

Length: approx. 5.3 km

Walking time: 1.30 hours, 30 minutes

Difficulty: medium

